ANOTHER BALLARD PROMISE KEPT
MAYOR BALLARD HOLDS FIRST OPEN TO THE PUBLIC BUDGET REVIEW IN INDIANAPOLIS HISTORY

INDIANAPOLIS – (July 28, 2008) Mayor Greg Ballard was joined by City Controller David Reynolds today during the City’s first quarterly budget review.

Last year, Mayor Ballard pledged to the citizens of Indianapolis that city government would be more transparent. As a result, this budget review follows through with that promise to give taxpayers an up close look at how their tax dollars will be spent.

“The Citizens of Marion County deserve to know how we’re spending their money,” commented Mayor Ballard. “We have some major challenges and the citizens deserve to know what those challenges are so that they can help us solve these problems.”

The quarterly budget meetings are open to the public and held in the Public Assembly Room in the City-County Building.
